

EnglishRadio Barranquilla

MODULE 3: ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND INSPIRING STORIES

LESSON 21. WHAT INSPIRES US?

VOCABULARY

segregation	ban	huge	challenge	achieve	crooked	unfortunately	embrace
join	release	encourage	cherish	rights	speech	in spite of	inspiration

ACTIVITY 1. WHAT INSPIRES YOU?

1. Write the things and people that inspire you.
2. Listen to some students talking about inspiration. Take notes and write what inspires them.

--	--	--	--	--

ACTIVITY 2.

Listen to our special guest Jordan Jacobs, an expert in conflict resolution from California, United States. Answer the questions below.

1. What is he passionate about?

2. What has he done to achieve his goals?

ACTIVITY 3. CULTURAL SECTION.

Sponsored by Centro Cultural Colombo Americano

Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr, Photo by Hulton Archive/Getty Images

Read and Research

Listen to the information about Martin Luther King, Jr. an American activist who made his famous “I Have A Dream” speech during the “March on Washington” on Aug. 28, 1963. He won the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964. That same year, the Civil Rights Act was passed, banning many types of discrimination against African Americans.

ACTIVITY 4.

Read an excerpt of the speech by Martin Luther King Jr. Use the chart below to illustrate Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.’s dream.

You can listen to the complete lecture on:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ARvrvJV4th4>

I Have a Dream...

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the true meaning of its creed: “We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal.”

I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia, the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood.

I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a state sweltering with the heat of injustice, sweltering with the heat of oppression, will be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice.

I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character.

I have a dream today!